

THE AGE-HERALD'S LAST MINUTE WORLD WIDE PICTURES

Rushing Work on New Monarch of the Air

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

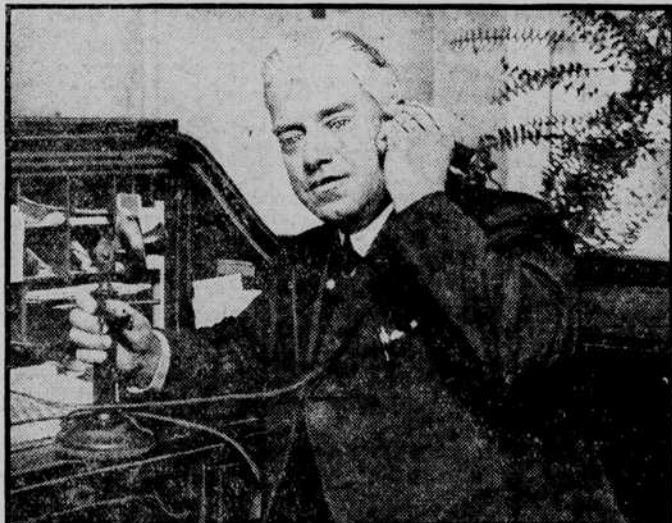

Interior of the army dirigible ZR-1, world's largest. Note how small workmen in foreground appear.

Floria Wuster measuring model of ZR-1 shock absorber.

This air giant, the dirigible ZR-1, being built at Lakehurst, N. J., will have trial flight in July. The great frame shown above is now ready for its covering.

Name Listed Wrong—Sues

E. O. Lucas, an undertaker of Passaic, N. J., has brought suit against telephone company for $10,000 for listing brother and self the same, making him lose business.

Funeral of American War Veteran in France

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Rifle salute was fired over the grave of Corporal C. H. Thomas at Suresnes Cemetery, near Paris. This World War veteran died of tuberculosis, resulting from his war services. He leaves a widow (heavily veiled in photo) and one child.

Laddie Boy Joyously Welcomes President and Mrs. Harding on Their Return From Vacation

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

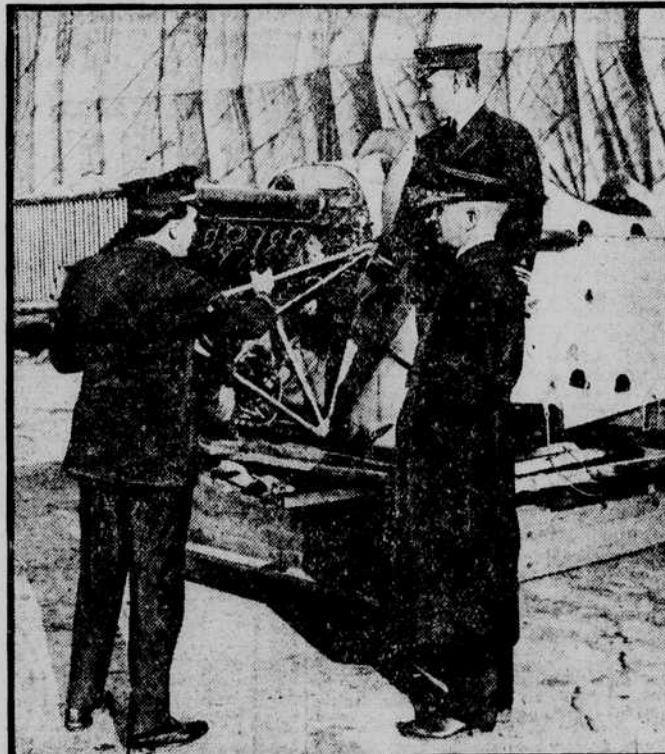

Laddie Boy welcomed President Harding just as enthusiastically as though he was saying "Hello" to plain Mr. Harding on the front porch at Marion, O.

She Raised Them All in Her Back Yard

These vegetables and fruits, displayed by Verna Silcox, were raised in California.

Navy Has Marvel Engine

U. S. Navy officers are shown inspecting new naval plane motor which ran 600 hours without stopping.

The High Sign!

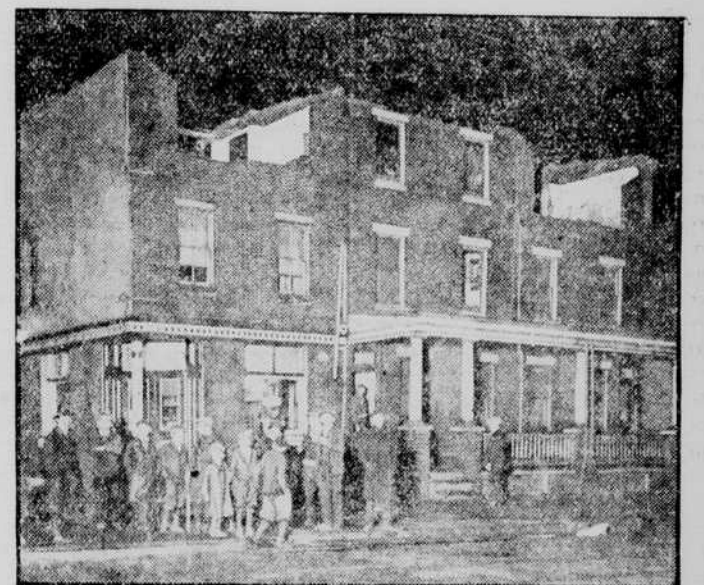

Miss Vida O'Pugh, signing 400 documents in President's name each day, is only woman who has that authority.

The Mistress of the White House returns.

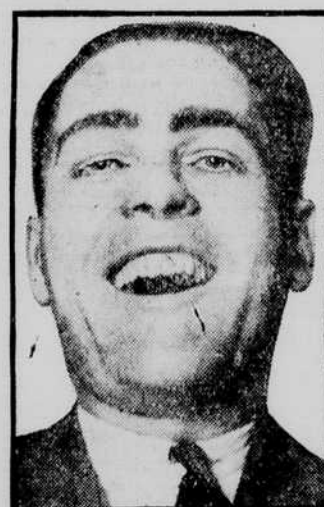

President and Mrs. Harding returned to Washington after five weeks' vacation in South.

Cyclone Sweeps Philadelphia

A terrific storm, sweeping Philadelphia, did greatest damage known there in several years. Huge trees were felled, roofs blown from dwelling houses (as shown above).

Ha! Ha!

So says Robert Henderson, Mankato, Minn. Twice he has been erroneously reported dead, once in France, and the other time recently in a hospital here.

Ropes Love After World Jaunt

Prince Loses to Rival

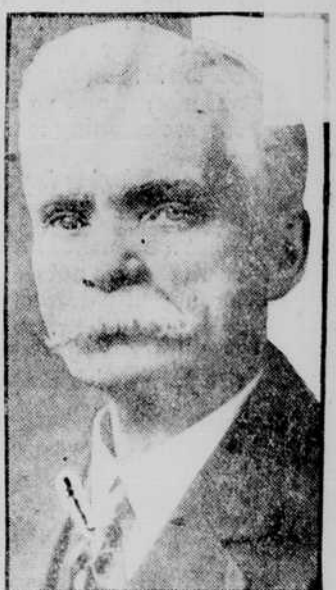

Here's first photo of Lady Mary Cambridge, niece of Queen Mary of England, taken with fiancé, Marquis of Worcester, who is said to have outrivaled Prince of Wales.

(Copyright, 1923, Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Samuel Mirich, Colorado rancher, claims long distance mate hunting record, twice sailing to Siberia and finally capturing childhood sweetheart, Andja.

Invader

To secure foothold in the East, particularly in New York, for Mormonism, Elder Brigham H. Roberts (above) will send 150 missionaries here soon.

AGE-HERALD PICTURES LEAD THE SOUTH